Sheila E.

The FREE Outdoor Concert Series Presented by Coors Light

Don't miss the sensational singer and drummer, Sheila E.'s performance on Friday, June 10, at the 2022 Merced County Fair presented by Valley Children's Healthcare as part of the FREE Outdoor Theatre Concert Series presented by Coors Light! This show begins at 8:30 p.m. and is free with paid Fair admission.

Sheila Escovedo, the Queen of Percussion, picked up the drumsticks and started making music at the young age of three. Sheila delivered her first solo performance to a live audience two years later and has since established herself as one of the most talented percussionist/drummers and performers in the world. Best known to music fans as Sheila E., she became a top session and touring musician before the age of 20, performing and/or recording with George Duke, Herbie Hancock, Billy Cobham, Con Funk Shun, Marvin Gaye, Diana Ross, Lionel Richie, Gloria Estefan, Patti LaBelle, and Stevie Nicks among others.

Sheila E.'s producing, arranging, and performance talents have been showcased throughout the music and film industry with appearances on The Academy Awards, The Latin Grammy Awards, BET Awards, The American Music Awards, The Kennedy Center Honors, The Summer Olympics, WOW Awards, the ALMA's, and The Image Awards just to name a few. In 2014, Sheila released her literary biography titled The Beat of My Own Drum, and her solo album, ICON. Following Prince's death, she released the single "Girl Meets Boy" in memory of the late, great, Prince. In 2018, Sheila E. released ICONIC: Message for America, an album that displays her efforts in awareness to social issues and humanitarianism.

Sheila E. continues to produce and perform music throughout the world. Her current single, No Line with the legendary Snoop Dogg, is Sheila's continued contribution to the music industry. Sheila E. is CEO of the entertainment company, StilettoFlats Inc., located in Los Angeles, California.
